

OFFICIAL PRESS RELEASE

RESIGNATION OF MAYOR HAROLD MAGILL

To the City Council of City of Seagoville:

It is with mixed feelings that I tender my resignation as the Mayor and as a City Council member for the City of Seagoville. I have fond memories of my tenure of service to the City of Seagoville and I am proud of the accomplishments and progress I have been blessed to be a part of for the City, and particularly for the wonderful citizens of the City of Seagoville.

However, at this time, I need to focus my time and energies on my family. My parents are elderly and have related medical issues which now require substantial care that I cannot help provide and at the same time give the necessary attention that the City deserves.

Thank you for support over the years and continuing support and understanding. I wish the City Council, City and its citizens all the best and look forward to continuing to be a proud citizen of the City of Seagoville.

Sincerely,

Harold Magill
